Subba Rao, B.A., (Hons.), Office of the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore, is hereby approved as an Accountant for Income-Tax purposes to audit the accounts in the English and Kannada languages only during the period of currency of the certificate issued to him under the Mysore Companies' Act.

5609 K. SUBBA RAO, Commr. of Income-Tax.

OFFICE OF THE SPECIAL OFFICER, FUEL SUPPLIES, BANGALORE.

Notification, dated 30th January 1947.

Subject:—Fuel and Charcoal Supplies to Bangalore City—Furnishing relevant information obligatory.

No. F. M. 31—46-7. An instance has been recently brought to the notice of the undersigned, wherein the driver of a lorry transporting fuel, hesitated to give information to the Assistant Fuel Inspector, that questioned him assuming that it was the owner of the lorry that had to be questioned on the point.

2. With a view to remove all such misapprehensions on the subject and in exercise of the powers vested in me by Government in their Notification No. 5936-C-7846-18, dated the 21st January 1947, under Rule 75-A of the Defence of India Rules as applied to Mysore and continued by the Supplies, Services and Miscellaneous Provisions (Temporary Powers) (Emergency Act 46) I, A. N. Anantaramaiya, Esq., B.Sc., LL.B., Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, Bangalore City, with a view to secure the maintenance of supplies of fuel and charcoal essential to the life of the community, in Bangalore City, hereby notify as follows :—

(1) Every person questioned either by the undersigned or any of his subordinates, not lower in rank than an Assistan Fuel Inspector or any Officer of corresponding status in the Food, Forest, Revenue or Police Departments, shall furnish immediately and truthfully all relevant information in his possession, relating to any enquiry, connected with fuel or charcoal supplies to Bangalore City.

(2) Such person shall also, if so required, give the information in writing and duly signed or with his thumb mark duly attested to the Officer demanding the same.

(3) Any hesitation evasion or suppression of relevant information will be deemed to be a contravention of this order.

(4) The attention of all concerned is hereby drawn to the fact that under Sub-rule 7 of the above said rule 75-A if any person contravenes any order made under this rule he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to 3 years or with fine or with both."

Notification dated 2nd February 1947.

No. Fl. 215—46-47. Whereas it has become necessary with a view to maintain supplies of fuel and charcoal, essential to the life of the community in Bangalore City, to call upon every person in charge of an establishment within the limits of the City, to declare truthfully information relating to the stocks of fuel or charcoal held from time to time by the establishment, I, A. N. Anantharamiya, Esq., B.Sc., LL.B., Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, Bangalore, in exercise of the powers vested in me under Government Order No. S. D. 5936—C. 78-46-18, dated 21st January 1947, under Rule 75 (a) of the Defence of India Rules, as applied to Mysore, and continued by the Supplies, Services and Miscellaneous Provisions (Temporary) Emergency Act of 1946, hereby direct that every person in charge of such establishment should furnish full and correct information in the accompanying form and in accordance with the following directions.

2. Such information should be filed in the office of the Fuel Inspector of the Circle concerned so as to reach his office on or before 5th of every calendar month and must relate to the stocks as on the morning of the 1st of the month. The first of such returns shall however be filed relating to the stocks as on 15th February 1947, before 20th February 1947.

3. Failure to comply with this order will be deemed to be a contravention punishable under Sub-Rule 7 of Rule 75 (a) of the Defence of India Rules, as applied to Mysore, which reads as follows:—

> "If any person contravenes any order made under this rule he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both."

4. It is further notified that applications for the issue of fresh permits for import of fuel or charcoal into Bangalore City for the use of these establishments shall be filed, in the first instance, in the office of the Fuel Inspector of the respective Circle, who will, on satisfying himself of the further needs of the establishment, send on the same to this office with his report.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, MYSORE GOVERNMENT INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 190.

To

The Agents and Policy-holders of the Public Branch.

The following amendments have been incorporated into the Rules of the Public Branch.

ASSIGNMENT AND NOMINATIONS.

Rule 22. The holder of a policy of Life Insurance on his own life not being an absolute assignee of the benefits under the policy, may, when effecting the policy or at any time before the policy matures for payment, nominate the person or persons to whom the money secured by the policy shall be paid in the event of his death.

Any such nomination in order to be effectual shall unless it is incorporated in the text of the policy itself, be made in the form prescribed, communitated to the Department and registered by the Secretary in the records relating to the policy and such nomination may at any time before the policy matures for payment be cancelled or changed in the manner prescribed by the Department.

A transfer or assignment of a policy made in accordance with Rule 23 other than that made in favour of the Secretary, Insurance Department, shall automatically cancel a nomination.

When the person nominated dies before the insured, the nomination becomes ipso facto void and the heirs of the nominee will have no claim. When more than one person are nominated, the sum assured will be payable to all of them jointly or to the survivors at the date of death of the insured. The heirs of the nominees dying before the insured will not be recognised.

An insured person making a nomination may cancel it or make a different nomination at any time.

Rule 22-a. Same as at persent.

Rule 23. Assignment and transfer of Life Insurance Policies.

1. A transfer or assignment of a policy of Life Insurance whether with or without consideration may be made only by an endorsement upon the policy itself or by a separate instrument, signed in either case by the transferor or by the assignor or his duly authorised agent and attested by at least one witness, specifically setting forth the fact of transfer or assignment.

2. The transfer or assignment shall be complete and effectual upon the execution of such endorsement or instrument duly attested except where the transfer or assignment is in favour of the Secretary of the Insurance Department but shall not be operative as against the Insurance Department and shall not confer upon the transferee or assignee, or his legal representative, any right to sue for the amount of such policy or the money secured thereby untill a notice in writing of the transfer or assignment together with either the said endorsement or instrument itself or a copy thereof certified to be correct by both transferor and transferee or their duly authorised agents has been deposited in the Insurance Department and the assignment got duly registered as hereinafter provided.

3. The date on which the assignment referred to in para 2 above is registered in the Insurance Department shall regulate the priority of all claims under a transfer or assignment as between persons interested in the policy.

4. Upon the receipt of the notice referred to in 2 above and on payment of the fee prescribed in this rule, the Secretary shall record the fact of such transfer or assignment together with the date thereof and the name of the transferee or the assignee.

5. From the date of registration of the assignment, the Secretary shall recognise the transferee or assignee named in the notice as the only person entitled to benefit under the policy.

Note 1.—All assignments of policies sent to the Insurance office for registration should be accompanied by duplicates, duly signed, dated and attested as in the case of the originals. Such duplicates are required for record in the office and assignments received without them will not be registered.

Note 2. In registering an assignment, the Insurance Department does not admit or express any opinion as to the form, legality, validity or effect of an assignment and the assignor should satisfy himself on these points before submitting the assignment for registration. A fee of Re. 1 is levied for registering any assignment other than that made by the insured in favour of his/her wife/husband, children or parents for love and affection.

Note 3.—No fee will be levied in respect of policies assigned in favour of the Secretary, Mysore Government Insurance Department for obtaining loans.

Rule 10-b. Prohibition of Rebates.

No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly as an inducement to any person to effect or renew an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the rules of the Department.

Renumber existing Foot-note under Rule 15 as Note 1.

Note 2 under Rule 15. Indisputability of Policies.

All policies after the expiry of two years from the date on which they were effected are indisputable except in the case of fraud or of mis-statement or omission of relevant facts or of breach of any terms of the policy contract.
